The Waveland Civic Association will host its 59th annual St. Patrick's Day parade this Saturday, March 18, beginning at 1 p.m., with Grand Marshal Kelly Cannon and Colleen, Kelsey LaFontaine. "We're ready to have some fun," WCA President AJ Andres said last week.

Andres said this year's parade is set to be the biggest in the club's history. "Year after year we keep growing," Andres said. "Every year's been getting bigger. ... It's a longer route this year. We actually have a lot more floats than previously entered. I think people are excited that Covid's almost a thing of the past and getting back to normal. We're steadily growing."

The WCA also sold about $5,000 more worth of produce for the floats and other participants this year than normal — the parade is famous for its throws, which include cabbages, carrots, onions and other produce.

The WCA has grown and improved all around in the past year, Andres said.

BAY EARNS NEW NATIONAL ACCOLADES

BY GEOFF BELCHER
GENERAL MANAGER

Bay St. Louis has earned more national accolades — “Southern Living Magazine” has named the Bay among the Top Ten of “The South’s Best Beach Towns For Girlfriend Getaways,” and included the Bay as one of “The 50 Best Small Towns in the South 2023.”

In an article published on its website on Wednesday, Southern Living said “Let’s hear it for the comeback kid. Decimated by Hurricane Katrina in 2005, Bay St. Louis has officially got its groove back. Just 51 miles from New Orleans, this easygoing spot can claim some of the Big Easy’s winning attributes (like ironwork and colorful buildings in charming Old Town Bay St. Louis, and fluffy shaved ice treats, compliments of Ms. Mary’s Old Town Snoballs), but it can also do it one better, with pet-friendly beaches that make it easy for your crowd’s four-legged friends to tag along.”

Bay St. Louis was number ten on the list for “Girlfriend Getaways.” Here’s the complete top ten:

1. St. Augustine, Fla.
2. Tybee Island, Ga.
3. Sanibel, Fla.
4. Gulf Shores/Orange Beach, Ala.
5. Folly Beach, S.C.
6. Ocean Springs, Miss.
7. Fernandina Beach, Fla.
8. Port Aransas, Tex.
9. Dunedin, Fla.
10. Bay St. Louis

The Bay was number 47 on Southern Living’s “Best Small Towns in the South” list, published on Tuesday.

“Bay St. Louis blends The Big Easy’s funky, artsy feel with the mellow, barefoot vibe you can find only in a tried-and-true coastal town,” according to the article. “The beaches are dog-friendly, the blueways (water trails) are ready for exploring, and Old Town’s French Quarter appeal can’t be beat.”

Other Mississippi towns on the list included Laurel (number 25), Oxford (22) and Ocean Springs (18).

Last year, Bay St. Louis was ranked number 2 among America’s Top Ten Small Coastal Towns by USA Today.

In 2020, the Bay earned fifth place in the nation in the competi-

Prendergast said officers observed the suspects’ vehicle trying to leave the parking lot and performed a traffic stop.

Khadja Monique Alfred, 35, and Larry Jerome Isaiah, 47, were both arrested at the scene, Prendergast said.

CASA will use the grant to expand the use of Trust Based Relational Intervention (TBRI), an attachment-based, trauma-informed intervention that is designed to meet the complex needs of vulnerable children, across the Mississippi Gulf Coast. CASA of Hancock County utilizes this funding to lead a team of child welfare professionals, families, and court personnel to implement important trauma-informed practices with children and youth who are at risk.

President and executive director, Christen Duhé, says, “We’re honored to support CASA of Hancock County and their important work advocating for the well-being of children in our community. The grant we’ve awarded is a testament to our ongoing commitment to support organizations that make a meaningful difference in the lives of vulnerable populations.”

The John T. and Lois R. “Sonny” Velkas Child Welfare Fund was established in 2021 to support child welfare initiatives in the community and has since been instrumental in making a meaningful impact on the lives of children in the Hancock County area. Flag Retirement Program

Edmond Fahey Funeral Home works with local residents and the veterans services organizations to properly retire any U.S. flag that has reached the end of its service. Our program is designed to honor our national heroes, our military veterans, and to give dignity to our American Flag when it is no longer worthy of display. We strive to see that each veteran being cremated has a flag. There is no charge for this service to our veterans.

According to the United States code, Title 4, Chapter 1, Subsection 8: "The flag, when it is in such condition that it is no longer a fitting emblem for display, should be destroyed in a dignified way, preferably by burning."

If you would like to honor a deceased veteran by donating an aged or worn flag to be properly disposed of, you may do so by delivering the flags to our funeral home located on the corner of Necaise Avenue and Main Street.

VanGogh Sighting at Boaters Ball

BY LINDA THIBODAUX

The Boaters held its annual Coronation Ball for the year 2023 by welcoming its guests with an entryway filled with twinkling lights that duplicated stars in the night. The theme of this event was “Starry Starry Night”. A duplication of VanGogh’s painting of Starry Night was placed in the back of the ballroom for picture taking. The ballroom was decorated with blue and silver decorations. Commodore Audrey Ramirez began the ball and introduced the Master of Ceremony for the evening, Ron Rech, who entered from the back of the ballroom while “Starry, Starry Night” by Don McLean was played. Ron introduced the special guests, attending past royalty of the Krewe of Kamehameha, royalty from other Krewes in Diamondhead, and the Coronation Ball theme.

Members of the outgoing court (2022) came in winding their way through all the tables handing out beads while “Bourbon Street Parade” was played. The court members in attendance were: Duke Art Burgoyne and Maid Pat Burgoyne, Duke Bob Krake and Maid Kay Krake, and Equerry Jim Miller and Lady-in-Waiting Jean Miller. We bid farewell to our royalty of last year King Akua Kai the 46th, Val Miller and his Queen Barbara Miller, as “If Ever I Cease To Love” played and they promenaded around the dance floor, then onto the stage, and were seated on the thrones.

MC Ron Rech then read the resume’ of the new recipient of the Royal Dolphin Award. Queen Barbara then presented the Royal Dolphin medallion to this year’s recipient Dinah Knobloch. This award recognizes a loyal subject who has made special contributions to the Boaters’ organization and elevates her to a Peer of the Realm of Kamehameha. Past recipients were also recognized.

With the playing of “Herald Calls”, everyone turned their attention to the back of the ballroom where the doors opened for the court of 2023. The M. C. announced King-elect Akua Kai the 47th, Ronnie LaFontaine and Queen-elect Elaine LaFontaine. The King was attired in a black tails and the Queen looked beautiful in a gown of navy and silver with accents of rhinestones and sequins. The audience had tiny lights that flashed like tiny stars. The royal couple promenaded around the dance floor and then on to the stage where they were seated on the royal thrones.

King Val pronounced Ronnie as King Akua Kai 47th, while Queen Barbara pronounced Elaine as Queen Elaine of the Krewe of Kamehameha. The new monarchs rise rose with the outgoing royalty and a toast was proposed to King Ronnie and Queen Elaine on behalf of the former monarchs of the Krewe of Kamehameha. King Ronnie toasted his beautiful Queen Elaine. After toasting, the royal gifts were presented by Audrey Ramirez, Dinah Knobloch, and Janie Dropco.

The court was introduced. The Dukes were attired in black tuxedos and the Maids’ gowns in silver and black. The members of the 2023 court were as follows: Duke Tim Kennedy and Maid Kelly Kennedy, Duke Lynn Cox and Maid LouAnn Cox, Equerry Ken Quebedeaux and Lady-in-Waiting Barbara Quebedeaux. They all paraded in to “Lucky Star” by Madonna.

King Ronnie and

Queen Elaine wanted the audience to know that they shared their reign with them, their friends and families, and that this would be the highlight of their season. “Starry, Starry Night” will be a night to remember. The new royalty had their first dance as the new royalty. The court, King Val and Queen Barbara joined them for the remainder of the dance.

Following the dance, the M. C. announced the special guests of the King and Queen. A royal dinner was then enjoyed by all which was prepared by Diamondhead Country Club. Johnny Fung and his band was introduced and thanked for the wonderful music for dancing and dining.

Pat Burgoyne, Ball Chairman, thanked Doug Maxwell for providing the tableau music, Hank Fried for managing the spot lighting, Carol Lilly for the invitations, Sue Warren for Reservations and Marilyn Lott and her committee for the decorations.

King Ronnie and Queen Elaine led all guests in the “Second Line” as our newest royalty. Everyone came to the center of the dance floor with umbrellas and napkins.

“We Served” - With a new personal member pin marking the years of 1993 as our founding year and the year 2023 as our 30th year, the Diamondhead Lions club marks 30 years of active service in Diamondhead. During that time the Diamondhead Lions Club has upheld the motto “We Serve” of Lions Clubs International (LCI).

The Diamondhead Lions Club was chartered in March 1993 to assist in accomplishing the goals of Lions Clubs International (LCI). We help organizations on the Mississippi Gulf Coast to raise funds to complete projects in the area. We physically and monetarily supported our local food banks, health organizations, and the Red Cross. We have entertained the residents of the local nursing home with weekly Bingo games. We have raised money for our charity efforts through the years through many fund raisers; Rummage Sales, Health Fairs, Annual Dog Shows, Annual “Walks for Sight”, Annual Fruit or Nut Sales, Holiday Basket Raffles, other special events, and many BONCO Games.

Lions are more than 1.4 million strong - men and women - young and old. You will find us in 208 countries and geographical areas from the hinterlands of Australia and Brazil to thriving urban centers like New York, Paris, London, and Tokyo.

We have a common spirit. Since our beginning in 1917, we have been united in a single cause: helping those less fortunate. We support the causes of Lions Clubs

International which are supported by the dues paid by all Lions, contributions by other residents of our local area, and by grants provided by the Lions Clubs International Foundation (LCIF). For Disaster Relief the current emphasis is the support of the people of the Ukraine and the Syria-Turkey earthquake.

Our local Lions Club has been active locally in assisting with disaster relief after hurricane Katrina and several other hurricanes and tornados in south Mississippi over the years. In addition, our Club supports many local charities and organizations that need the help that we can provide, as well as individuals that need help with eye or hearing care or other needs.

MS House

Weekly Summary

- Week of March 6

This was the tenth week of the 2023 Legislative Session. Wednesday was the deadline for the House to discuss general Senate bills. Any Senate bills that did not make it off the calendar and before the House died. The deadline to discuss Senate appropriations and revenue bills will occur next Tuesday, March 14.

Senate Bill 2212 would extend postpartum Medicaid coverage for new mothers from 60 days to a full year. Proponents of the bill said that the extension would improve Mississippi’s infant and maternal mortality rates, currently some of the highest in the United States. Opponents argued that the bill could open the door for a full expansion of Medicaid. The bill passed by a vote of 92-27 and has been returned to the Senate. Governor Tate Reeves has indicated that he would sign postpartum Medicaid expansion into law should the Legislature pass it.

A ballot initiative process could be restored under Senate Concurrent Resolution 533. Unlike the former process, SCR 533 would allow for statutory changes, or changes to the law, rather than an amendment to the constitution. A House amendment was adopted lowering the threshold of signatures needed from 12 percent of registered voters to 12 percent of the number of voters in the last gubernatorial election. The former ballot initiative process was deemed invalid by the Mississippi Supreme Court in 2021 based on the technicality that the number of Congressional districts had gone from five to four, and the language was not updated in the initiative process. SCR 533 passed 77-9 with many members voting present. The concurrent resolution will go to conference for further revisions before the session is over.

Other Senate bills that passed the House included a bill to ban ballot harvesting (SB 2358), a bill to allow armed educators in schools (SB 2079), a bill to create a Public Funds Offender Registry (SB 2420), a bill to revise the boundary lines of the Capitol Complex Improvement District (SB 2343), a bill that would revise the penalty for motor vehicle theft (SB 2099) and the Mississippi Regional Pre-Need Disaster Clean Up Act (SB 2538).

On Thursday, the House took up the Senate’s half of the state budget, which includes the Departments of Finance and Administration, Banking and Con-

Hancock History: The Koch Family

A historic family in Logtown was the Koch Family. Christian Koch (1811-1894) was a merchant marine Danish sea captain that settled in Hancock County in 1841. He married a fifteen year old girl, Annette “Nettie” Netto (1826-1886), in 1841 and they settled near Logtown on the south bank of Bogue Homa Bayou in 1854. Christian and Annette reared six children. Christian bought and sold land in Hancock County all his life.

Christian and Nettie were letter writers and hundreds of these letters are preserved in the Hill Memorial Library at Louisiana State University. These letters depict the life of ordinary citizens in Hancock County during the Civil War. Christian owned a schooner named “Experiment,” and he sailed across the Atlantic Ocean because one of his businesses was buying and selling cargo. Lumber from the Pearl River saw mills was in great demand everywhere and the timber industry in Hancock County was beginning to flourish in this antebellum period. Annette ran the farm and their timber business selling trees or logs to the local mill while Christian was away at sea. The Koch farm raised beef cattle, owned two oxen, and had a milking cow. Annette and her children planted peas, pumpkins, turnips, China sugar cane, black-eyed peas, potatoes, cabbage, corn, and rice.

The Civil War brought great hardship to the citizens of Hancock County. Although no major battle was fought in Hancock County, the Pearl River Valley was a “no-mans-land” with sympathizers of both the Union and the Confederacy. Logtown residents were subject to Yankee raids, Confederate cavalry intrusions, and migrating bands of jawhawkers, deserters, and bandits. Fort Pike on the Rigolets was the border between the Yankee and Rebel lines. The Union commander of Fort Pike did not allow free passage from one territory to the other.

Christian Koch was antiwar and anti-slavery in sentiment, but was frequently harassed by the Union authorities. Consequently, he and his schooner did business in Union waters, but he could not sail up the Pearl River freely without a pass. Hence, the need to communicate with Nettie by letter. However, Koch worked with the Union army to be allowed to do business with his schooner. The Federals often would charter his ship for its use paying him $15/day. He was also able to participate in some of the legal and illegal traffic or trade of JFH Claiborne, of this conflict, earning the distrust of everyone. The economic survivors in this period had to be clever, resourceful, and cunning.

Guest Column

By David Sauer

If you live long enough you may have lived past your sell-by date. By this I mean, one starts to feel out of time, as if the world has passed one by. The first symptoms, of course, are starting to wonder who are these famous people. Soon thereafter, it’s popular culture, especially music, that seems quite strange. And one hearkens back to a simpler time, the music of my youth; memories and nostalgia become much more important than being caught up with all the current fads. And then come the shocks—I’ve never seen or imagined anything like that happening in my life. But it happens anyway.

In my eightieth year the State of the Union’s shock was a big one, one that really made me feel lost in space and time. Watching the President’s State of the Union speech on Tuesday, Feb. 9, along with 29 million of my countrymen, about thirty minutes into the speech, an eruption happened so shocking I had to turn the television off. Congressmen started yelling “Liar” and “Bulls” at the President! Of course, it wasn’t just “men” either.

It was an appalling display of disrespect for the office of President if not for the person occupying it, for the place, the home of Congress itself, and for the occasion—a once a year speech outlining the President’s goals for the coming year.

I couldn’t help myself flashing back to my ardent Republican parents and grandparents—who would have been as shocked as I at such behavior. It makes me feel as if the barbarians are at the gates, and breaking down our once civilized country into something I don’t recognize.

(Nostalgia breaks into my thoughts.)

Even in the darkest days of disputes over the Vietnam War, when I myself came to switch parties to an anti-war party, our candidate (against President Lyndon Johnson) was Senator Eugene McCarthy for whom I canvassed in deeply Republican districts, but always politely as our motto was “Be clean for Eugene.” And I was met with polite skepticism. But now, almost sixty years later, though emotions were just as roiled, the veneer of polite discourse has been shattered.

Perhaps almost more shocking is what set off this explosion. The President simply said that some, not all, nor even a majority, but some in the Republican Party had proposed sunseting Social Security, Medicare and Medicaid. Denials were everywhere from the Republicans, despite the “11 Point Plan to Rescue America” proposed by the Republican Senate candidates in 2022 calling for an end to automatic funding of Medicare. Senator Mike Lee of Utah appeared in a youtube.com video of him running on “end to Medicare.” It went viral the next day. Thus the calls of “liar” and worse were immediate lies themselves.

President Biden thanked them saying, “I’m glad you see...I enjoy conversion. So we all agree, Social Security and Medicare are off the books now.” If only it were this simple. I fear the country is becoming something totally different from what we all believed in from childhood, where disagreements didn’t lead to name calling, bullying, and refusal to exchange ideas calmly, if passionately. Instead, I feel I am naïve and lost in the country I thought I knew and loved.

Waveland P.D. arrests homeless man for alleged molestation

Waveland police on Friday arrested a homeless man for allegedly molesting a special-needs teen.

Carl D. Necaie, 72, was charged with one count of contributing to delinquency/neglect of a child; and one count of touching/molesting a child or mentally defective person for lustful purposes.

He was transported to the Hancock County Jail, where he remained on Monday afternoon in lieu of $55,000 in bonds.

Waveland Police Chief Mike Prendergast said officers found the teen — a 16-year-old run-away with diminished mental capacity — after he was spotted at the Waveland Walmart on Friday. The teen said

Carl Necaie

Necaie, who is a convicted sex offender, had provided alcohol and tobacco, so they conducted a forensic interview and learned Necaie had allegedly assaulted him.

An initial court date in the case has been scheduled for April 20 in Waveland Municipal Court, jail records show.

The incident is still under investigation.

the Confederate cavalry. He later deserted. After that, he had to hide in Devil’s Swamp to avoid being arrested, or even hanged, as a deserter. Elders reported to his father that mosquitoes protected him against capture from Confederate cavalry better than anything else. The local Confederate cavalry under the command of General Nathan Bedford Forrest, whom Annette knew, was more of an irritant than the Union cavalry. Yankees would at least pay for the cattle they confiscated. The Confederate cavalry was always seeking conscripts from the young boys on the farms, exacting money for their release after being drafted, demanding food and lodging, and stealing clothing, tobacco, logs, cattle, horses or behaving in a disorderly manner. It got so bad in Hancock County that the Feds authorized the creation of local Citizen’s Committees, under the command of a Captain, that would melt out frontier justice, including hanging, for thieves.

The Koch Family was one of the first settlers of Logtown. Christian Koch, like Simon Favre and the Poitevent Family, made their first money as sea merchants in their schooners. Additional wealth was acquired in the timber, cattle, and real estate sectors of the economy. Christian and Nettie stand out as legendary figures in this early history of Hancock County. They are buried in the Koch Cemetery at Bogue Homa near Logtown. They have hundreds of descendents in Hancock County and elsewhere in the United States. This family represents an example of an emerging entrepreneurial class in Hancock County society that would establish a flourishing economy during the late nineteenth Century.

The Koch Family letters represent a priceless, treasure trove of primary source material of local history of our county. The real hero in this story is Nettie, a frontier farmer’s wife, who held together the family, and managed a farm and timber business, with a husband far away, sailing the seas. Nettie had to negotiate with Union and Confederate cavalry that raided the countryside over and over, pursuing a strategy of survival in a war zone. There are probably many such women today in the Ukraine facing the same challenges for survival.

Councilman Josh DeSalvo “stayed on top of it for years to get the funds for it, including Tidelands funds, a GOMESA grant, DMR funding and the Sports Fish Restoration program.

“The state legislature was a very big help for us up in Jackson, including Rep. Brent Anderson, Sen. Philip Moran, Rep. Richard Bennett, Rep. Jay McKnight, Sen. Mike Thompson, they all helped us get the funding.”

In all, the project cost about $1.2 million, records show. The city initially acquired the historical property a few years ago. It was formerly the site of “The Cave” bar, bait shop and boat launch.

Favre said the new boat launch “is already being used quite a bit, but hopefully, that’s just the first phase. We plan to add parking and other amenities, as well as a little side canal with a bulkhead to create some more docking space for smaller boats. Paving the parking lot is also on the list.”

“Wintering”

By REV. C. GERALD RICHARDSON, D. MIN

C. GERALD RICHARDSON, D. MIN.

For my most recent birthday, I received a wonderful book from my nephew. He holds a Ph.D. and works for a federal agency in Washington, D.C. Until recently he was a professor at Michigan State University. He decided to leave his tenured position there in order to devote his career to the field of environmental concerns which confront our world. Needless to say, I am very proud of him, not only for his many accomplishments, but also for his profound insights into the life and challenges which are part of current reality. I do not get to see him often, but we do talk by phone from time to time. These conversations always inspire me, and they are a reminder of the many ways that he has blessed my life over the years.

The name of the book is Wintering, by British author Katherine May. It is a beautifully written reminder of ways in which we can learn and grow through the literal and metaphorical winters of our lives. Among the many meaningful passages for me is a section on singing.

....we’ve linked singing with talent, and we’ve got that fundamentally wrong. The right to sing is an absolute, regardless of how it sounds to the outside world. We sing because we must. We sing because it fills our lungs with nourishing air, and it lets our hearts soar with the notes we let out. We sing because it allows us to speak of love and loss, delight and desire, all encoded in lyrics that let us pretend that those feelings are not quite ours. In song we have permission to rehearse all our heartbreaks, all our lusts. In song we can console our children while they are still too young to judge our rusty voices, and we can find shortcuts to ecstasy while performing the mundane duty of a daily shower or scrubbing down the kitchen after yet another meal.

Best of all, we can sing together, whole families knowing the same songs and giving them the same meaning. When I sing with my mother I am struck every time that our voices are the same.

This passage resonates with me on several levels. One is that I come from a singing family. Whenever we get together, singing is a major part of the agenda. The experience generates memories which often touch me deeply. There is also truth in the implication of May that music is the voice of the soul. It contains a spiritual component which does not require religion to appreciate.

Yes, there are winters in all our lives. There is loss, pain, even death. But there is also music in the winters. There we are sustained, nurtured, and find purpose for the living of our days. It reminds us that we are not alone. We share this journey with family, friends, and sometimes, even strangers. There is grace in the journey and hope for those who come after us. Even as we pass through the winter there is a Spring that awaits us. Some call it hope. Some call it optimism. Some call it possibility. Some call it God. However we may choose to name it, may we trust it and believe that it is good.

Action on the baseball and softball diamonds are in full swing after the Mardi Gras break with division schedules starting this week for all area teams.

BASEBALL

On the baseball diamond on Wednesday, March 8, the Bay High Tigers and the Saint Stanislaus Rock-A-Chaws renewed their annual rivalry.

The Tigers (4-6) took an early lead in the top of the first inning when Ethan Kingston led the game off with a double to centerfield. He crossed the plate when Braden Necaise drove him in.

The Rocks (4-6) answered in the bottom half of the inning when Hugh LeMasters delivered with a solo homerun over the centerfield wall to knot the score at 1-1. The trip around the bases marked the third consecutive year that the Rocks have led off their first inning against Bay High with a solo shot. Ethan McNeil and Ethan Jacob each hit solo home runs in 2021 and 2022, respectively.

The Tigers regained the lead in the top of the second inning as Brennan Bilich was hit by a pitch and advanced to third on an errant pitch. Bilich touched home plate when Eli Bingham drove him in.

In the top of the third inning, Kingston reached base after being hit by the pitch. He was advanced on a sacrifice bunt by Carsen Tallent. Kingston later scored on a wild pitch to give the Tigers some insurance at 3-1.

LeMasters singled to lead off the third inning for the Rocks. He promptly stole second base and advanced to third on an errant pitch. Chesley Rhodes smacked a frozen rope to centerfield to sacrifice LeMasters across home plate that cut the Tigers' lead to 3-2.

Both teams were quiet at the plate until the bottom of the fifth inning when SSC drew consecutive walks by Seth Farni and Rhodes. With two outs, Jeremy Mares ripped a two-run single that plated both runners to give SSC their first lead of the game 4-2.

The Rocks retired the side in the top of the sixth and quickly added six more runs in their half of the inning to take a commanding 10-3 lead.

Freshman Wiley Mossy crushed a pitch over the leftfield wall for a 2-run homerun giving SSC a 6-3. Tallent made a play for the ball in leftfield but took a nasty shot into the wall. He was able to shake it off and complete the game after giving those in attendance a scare.

Three consecutive batters advanced to the bags putting ducks on the pond for SSC. Tate Murphy helped his own cause with a RBI. Hill Gainey blasted a two-run single to rightfield to plate two more runs making the score.

Bay High led off the top of the seventh with a strikeout followed by Maddux Mayo's single. Kingston was hit by a pitch that pout two runners on base, but LeMasters turned a double play for SSC on the next Tiger batter to end the game at 10-3.

Bay High head coach BJ Corr commented, "Braden Necaise is a competitor for us. His pitch count got a little high, so we had to rest him as division starts next week. I thought our approach at the plate was solid and we put together several good at-bats that totaled 7-8 pitches. We also ran the bases well tonight. When we can get Ethan Kingston on base early that helps our cause. We are progressing in the right direction."

Necaise took the loss on the mound allowing three hits and recording four strikeouts. Getting hits at the plate for Bay High were Kingston, Joel Ulrich, Walker Seymour, and Mayo.

SSC head coach Brad Corley stated, "I want to credit BJ Corr, the Bay High players and the coaching staff. They are much improved from last season. Corr is doing

On Thursday, March 9, the sport of track and field was re-established at Long Beach High School after a three-year hiatus of competing on their own track surface due to damage caused by a winter storm three years ago. After a complete refinishing of the track surface and turf installed on the football field, track and field took place in Long Beach once again. Bay High, Hancock, Our Lady Academy, Pass Christian and Saint Stanislaus all traveled over to Bearcat country to compete in the invitational named for the Bearcats’ former Hall of Fame head coach Olen Welch.

Twelve teams competed in both the boys’ and girls’ divisions. Harrison Central won the girls team title scoring 152 points. Pass Christian placed fifth out of 12 teams with 61 points followed by Bay High and OLA with 55 points each while Hancock was ninth with 30 points.

The boys team title was claimed by D’Iberville with 126 points. Bay High placed fifth with 73 points followed by Hancock with 57 points. Saint Stanislaus was eighth with 50 points followed by Hancock with 36 points.

In the girl’s division, Bay High was led by top three finishers including Genyr Washington who Cruthirds, and Alaya Paul which placed second (4:35.20).

On the boys’ side, Bay High was paced by event winner Layland Adams who won the long jump with a leap of 21’ 4” and placed third in the high jump (5’10”). The 4x200m relay team won the event in 1:32.57.

The best part, Warino said, is that the event will help local organizations.

“We appreciate everybody who showed up,” he said. “All the proceeds will go to CASA of Hancock County, the Hancock County Senior Citizens Center and a few other charities.”

The Misfits Street Krewzers are always looking for new club members. They meet at 6 p.m. on the second Tuesday of every month at VFW Post 3253 in Bay St. Louis. On the third Saturday of each month, the club hosts a cruise-in at the Bay St. Louis Municipal Harbor. The next cruise-in is scheduled for April 15, Warino said.

For more information about the GNAT Nationals or the Misfits Street Krewzers, check out the club’s Facebook page, or call 228-493-4375.

Hancock Jail records show that Alfred and Isaiah were both released Wednesday on $30,000 in bonds each.

An initial hearing has been scheduled for March 16 in Waveland Municipal Court.

a tremendous job with the program and the progress is evident. I thought Tate Murphy threw strikes all game long and we were able to barrel up on some pitches. Our approach was solid tonight. I was proud of Tate Murphy tonight and how he threw on the mound. Hugh LeMasters has been a spark for us all season and he continued that tonight. I was also happy to see Wiley Mossy get a few good cuts at the plate. Both Mossy and Murphy are freshmen, and we are looking forward to their development.”

Murphy threw six innings and allowed three hits, three earned runs, and fanned six batters. LeMasters was 2-for-3 with a homerun and scored three runs. Heith Shinn was also 2-for-3. Gainey and Mares each had two RBI. Mossy had a two-run homerun while Rhodes and Murphy each had an RBI.

While researching the history of this series, it was discovered that this was the 34th consecutive SSC victory over Bay High in baseball dating back to 2004.

In other action, Saint Stanislaus defeated Picayune 9-4 with Rhodes going 4-for-4 with a homerun and 2 RBI while Seth Farni was 2-for-4 with a homerun and 3 RBI. Tate Murphy also went 2-for-4 with a homerun while Mossy was 2-for-3 with a double. Brady Wallis also added a single for the Rocks. Evan Lafontaine got the win on the mound.

Bay High lost to Resurrection 4-1 and beat West Marion 5-4. Xander Ladner got the win on the mound against West Marion throwing 6 innings while allowing just four hits and fanning six batters.

Hancock picked up a win over Pascagoula 7-4 last week. Max Garrett was the winning pitcher throwing 5 innings and collecting 7 strikeouts. Sean Ostheimer had a hit with 3 RBI followed by Dylan Peterson, Peyton DeWitt, Garrett, and Tanner Ladner all getting a hit.

The Hawks also dropped a game to St. Martin 7-5 after being up 5-2 going into the seventh inning. Matthew Cuevas took the loss on the mound for Hancock pitching 6 innings and allowing one earned run and fanning seven batters. Ladner had three hits to lead Hancock at the plate. Peyton DeWitt had two hits followed by Garrett with a homerun, and Ostheimer, Cuevas, Jude Ulrich, and Jeffrey Hopgood all had one hit.

Softball

The Bay High Lady Tigers (2-6) did not start the season off well but seemed to have turned the corner in the last 10 days. Two weeks ago, Picayune beat Bay High 8-0. On Tuesday, March 7, Bay High returned the favor beating Picayune 8-3 on the softball diamond.

In the game, Devin Bourgeois collected two hits including a homerun and scored three times. Gracey Adkins was 4-for-4 in the game with 3 RBI and Carlie Lumpkin was 2-for-4 with 2 RBI. Delana Peters was 2-for-3 with one run scored. Adkins got the win on the mound throwing six innings and allowing one hit, three runs, two walks, and five strikeouts.

Bay High head coach Wali Shabazz stated, “We are playing with more confidence now. Last week, we fell to Picayune 8-0 and then we made some changes, and it has worked out for the better. We are not playing as tight as we once were to start the season.”

The Lady Tigers also beat Long Beach 17-0 last week.

The Hancock Lady Hawks picked up two tournament wins over Newton County 8-1 and Neshoba Central 4-2 but game details were not available.

sis, we have come a long way,” Andres said. “We have float captains that are taking their own money and putting into their floats to revamp them. We’re trying to modernize.” Andres said he’s especially excited about this year’s grand marshal and Colleen. “These two are really energetic,” Andres said. Grand Marshal Kelly

Cannon grew up in Lake Charles, La., but in 1989, State Farm Insurance Company hired him to become the Waveland State Farm agent. Kelly, wife Julie and then-infant son Kody moved to Waveland “on a hope and a prayer,” he said, “not knowing a soul.” Kelly said it was “the single best decision” he has made, “bested only by marrying” Julie. The couple quickly met friends through the WCA and the Jaycees, many of whom they still consider dear friends to this day. Kelly has spent many years coaching both youth baseball and soccer in the local area and donating back to the community in multiple ways. This year’s Colleen Kelsey LaFontaine is a 17-year-old senior at Bay High School, the daughter of Cory and Christina LaFontaine of Waveland. She has been active with her school and participated in soccer, volleyball and softball during high school. She was vice-president of her freshman and sophomore classes, and is currently the Senior Class Representative. She has maintained Alpha Honor roll each year, was inducted into the National Honor Society and has received multiple academic and athletic awards. She also volunteers in the community with her youth group. Kelsey received early admission into the nursing program at the University of South Alabama, as well as scholarships to the university of Southern Mississippi, Ole Miss and Pearl River Community College. She plans to attend PRCC and transfer to USM to receive a degree in nursing, where she wants to work in the neonatal field. She has been a maid for the WCA St. Patrick’s ball since her freshman year, and said it is an honor to be selected as Colleen. Andres said he’s also excited about the new parade route. “We’re changing the route up,” he said. “We’re going to include Nicholson this year, and get back to the traditional route, including Lafitte and Coleman.” This year, the parade will start at Bienville Drive and N. Beach Blvd. It will turn Right on Nicholson Avenue heading north, then left on Central Avenue, turning Left on Lafitte Drive to N. Beach Blvd., then Right on N. Beach Blvd. to Coleman Avenue, turn right on Coleman Avenue to Central Avenue, then Left along Central Avenue to Waveland Avenue where the parade will disband at Elwood Bourgeois Park.
